JUCD End of Life Care Education

We are excited to invite you to Palliative and End of Life Care education sessions being piloted in Derbyshire. These short sessions will be run by expert practitioners from across Derbyshire, bringing together experience and insight to improve skills and practice. Attend individual sessions or full days to learn as much as possible.

Who are these workshops for?

These workshops are open to all health and social care staff in Derbyshire. They will be particularly useful for new and developing nurses, nursing and care home staff, and allied health professionals.
